Coventry Workers' Comp Services Announces Results of Special Olympics Campaign Raising nearly $29,000 for Special Olympics Illinois

Franklin, TN – February 2, 2010 – Coventry Workers' Comp Services (CWCS), a division of Coventry Health Care, Inc., announced the launch of its' Outcomes-Based Network product last fall at the National Workers' Compensation & Disability Conference. Supporting the launch of this new product, conference participants and companies had the opportunity to make charitable pledges directly to Special Olympics Illinois during the show with CWCS matching each donation dollar for dollar. CWCS employees had a similar opportunity to contribute in the month leading up to the show.

Although the campaign was due to come to a close in early December, CWCS had donations flowing in from companies and partners through the end of 2009. Contributing companies, including FAIRPAY, Impairment Resources, Medrisk and Universal SmartComp, were among the many partners in this initiative. In the end, CWCS was able to collect over $14,000 in employee and company contributions. With matching funds the total donation to Special Olympics Illinois fell just shy of $29,000.

“We are so pleased with the results of this charitable campaign. It was evident that this cause resonated with our clients, partners and CWCS employees.” stated Ken Loffredo, senior vice president, CWCS. “Special Olympics Illinois is a terrific organization, and we enjoyed having them join us at the event and having one of their accomplished Olympians at the show to share his experiences.”
